

Help us celebrate the uniqueness of autism by expressing what "Autism Is" to you by decorating and cutting out the attached hand print and bring it to the Creative Zone the day of the walk to help us complete the Make Your Mark Mural. The mural will become a traveling art show that will be featured at resource fairs, events, and you can check it out and display it at your local school, church, place of employment, etc.

